SPECIAL ELECTION ON NEW CITY HALL SITE IS SUGGESTED

Council Studying Ways of Getting Public View on Location

Faced with the necessity of an early decision, Upland city councilmen are today studying ways and means of best determining where the general public wants the new city hall placed.

Calling of a special election to decide the issue was suggested at the city council meeting last night. Also considered was the advisability of a postal card poll.

While the councilmen have not gone on record in regard to the matter, it is understood the officials favor the site on Second avenue at D street.

On file, however, is a petition signed by some officials of citrus associations, some business men and others asking that the structure be placed on the site now occupied by the police station and adjacent property.

In the meantime final steps are being taken in filing the city hall project with the WPA.

Richard G. Manley, city manager, said he had been told that if the city proceeded to use the D street site a special election would be called in the matter.

Such an election would perhaps delay or even kill the WPA project after it had been approved, it was reported.

Under the circumstances, the city officials considered the advisability of calling a special election as soon as possible and definitely settling the matter. Edward E. Gray, city attorney, expressed the belief that in any event the final decision would be up to the council.

The D street property, on which is now located the fire station, was purchased in 1911, a bond issue having been voted. A hurried perusal of the records by City Clerk E. C. Mehl revealed that the property was purchased as a "public building site." He is going to study the proceedings thoroughly to determine if any definite restrictions were embodied in the action. Bonds are still outstanding for the property, the city paying on them annually.

Those favoring the police station site contend that the municipal building would be in an area recently improved with a new Exchange office and Santa Fe station, would tend to centralize the business community and would further improve the district. The two buildings between the police station and the new Exchange building would be razed to provide a large enough site, under the suggested change in the site.

City officials pointed out that a change in the site from D street might mean the loss of any chance to get WPA assistance and would mean an additional outlay of many thousands of dollars in obtaining additional land, in clearing the site and in getting new construction plans.

In view of the fact that no definite plans for a public expression were made last inght, it is likely the matter will be given consideration during the two weeks until another council meeting.

Wire Fence Will Be Placed Around City Dump on 8th Street

A wire fence will be placed around the city's dump grounds on East Eighth street near Grove avenue. Upland city council approved this improvement at its meeting last night.

The dump extends over a distance of 700 feet. Cans and all other rubbish, except garbage, may be dumped there by the public.

Chaffey Telephone System Centralized

One telephone number is in effect today for all Chaffey high school and junior college telephones. With the start of 1938, the communication system was centralized in order [illegible] better service to the public.

The new Chaffey telephone number is 627-11. A call to this number will place persons in touch with any department on the campus. Nellie Jones of Upland is in charge of the "PBX" board.

Very Brief Interviews

Gets Same License Numbers

Leigh Thompson was not only among the first in Upland to get 1938 auto license plates, but he also got the same numbers he has had for several years. Numbers on his two machines are 1T1413 and 1T1414.

Asked what the "T" stood for, he said it was "Thompson."

Likes New Plate Service

David Frank "Speedy" Jones thinks it is a fine thing for the chamber of commerce to get the 1938 license plates for local people.

"I have heard a lot of people speak about it," he said. "Many would find it inconvenient to get to either Pomona or San Bernardino. Having one local central place like the chamber of commerce give the service enables us to get the plates easier than though we lived right in a town where a state office was located."

People Want Satisfaction

Severin Johnson, proprietor of an Alta Loma machine shop, in Upland this afternoon observed that people patronize firms where they are best satisfied even though it is more inconvenient.

"I have people come to me from west of Upland and as far east as Fontana," he said. "And some people in Alta Loma and Cucamonga go to Upland or Ontario."

CITY'S FINANCES TOTAL $109,360

New City Hall Fund and Operating Accounts Make Up Satisfactory Figure

Upland city finances appeared in a very satisfactory condition today, sum of $109,360.28 being available in bank deposits and securities. Owen E. Atwood, city treasurer, reported on the finances at the council meeting last night.

In the reserve account are securities totaling $17,875. Other accounts follow: General, $13,311.61; water department, $39,090.02; municipal bond fund, 2 cents; street improvement fund, $249.46; library, $404,75, and new city hall fund, $38,429.42.

Water Department Income

During December the water department's revenue was $6,410.72, Richard G. Manley, city manager, said. Franchise tax payments, licenses and other income to the general fund totaled $1,264.72.

License collections during December were reported at $217.23.

Traffic Report

One hundred and fifty-one motorists were arrested during last month, Police Chief E. C. Mehl reported. Failure to observe boulevard stops was the charge in 58 cases and 53 speeders were ordered into court.

Fire Chief Jake Voth reported two fire alarms, two fire drills, six inspections, eight cases of trash being burned after 10 a. m. and the issuance of four fire permits.

Twenty-fifth district and county council of the American Legion will be held in the Ontario Legion hall at 7o'clock Tuesday night. The medical staff of the Sawtelle hospital will be entertained. Reservations are to be made with Homer T. Goslin, commander.

The quarterly session will be held in connection with the annual meeting. All persons who hold Red Cross membership cards are eligible to attend the meeting and they are urged to be present and take part in the election.

SALE INFANTILE PARALYSIS PINS PROPOSED HERE

Sponsorship of Birthday Ball As Benefit Not Favored By Andreas

Rather than sponsor a ball and expend money for an orchestra and entertainment, the sale of "infantile paralysis pins" at 10 cents each is proposed by Godfrey A. Andreas as a means for the Chaffey district to do its annual part in combating the disease.

Mr. Andreas is local chairman of the national campaign to raise funds. In former years dances have been held on the anniversary of President Roosevelt's birthday, all net proceeds going to the infantile paralysis fund.

Mr. Andreas also suggested that all money raised here be used either locally or at the recently established Casa Loma convalescent home near Chino.

Mr. Andreas attended a meeting in Los Angeles this week at which general plans for the birthday balls were discussed. Many southern communities are going to have balls during the week of Jan. 24, he reported. He also pointed out that officials of the Warm Springs Fourlation expect to get 25 per cent of all net proceeds for use in research in combating the dreaded disease.

Within a short time plans for the money-raising event will be discussed. Andreas said last night however, that if at all possible he will urge the sale of lapel pins as a means of raising funds rather than holding a ball. He said there would be very little expense with the latter plan and expressed the belief more people would contribute.

The Case Loma home is an institution sponsored by leaders in this district and in eastren Los Angeles county. The San Antonio Community hospital has provided serum to combat the disease.

Lions Help Build Scout House; Dinner Served at Building

As carpenters Upland Lions club members helped out yesterday in construction of the new Boy Scout building on Third avenue. That is, some of them performed creditably. In any event all of them present yesterday ate heartily. The club met there yesterday rather than at its usual place in the Red Hill Country club house.

The club is assisting financially in construction of the building Howard Mason is the club's representative on the project and he has given many hours in the interest of the building and in the establishment of a new Boy Scout troop.

Mr. Mason appeared at the city council meeting last night relative to the building code requirements. Steel window sashes are necessary in conforming with the code. The council voted $65 to help in the project.

Hanson Fruit Co. Joins With Exchange

Making the thirteenth association to come under its direction in this district, the Hanson Fruit Co. has affiliated with the California Fruit Growers Exchange.

Announcement to this effect was made today by Harry B. Harlow, manager of the Ontario-Cucamonga Fruit Exchange. The new Exchange house will be served through the local office.

Hal B. Harlow and Leroy Naftel have been operating the Hanson packing house. G. A. Hanson is one of the pioneers in the citrus industry. Mr. Harlow, son of the O-K manager, was in recent years with the Exchange advertising department. Mr. Naftel was formerly with the California and Arizona marketing agreement.

About 100 cars of fruit will be shipped during the year, according to predictions.

Sportsmen To Dine At Jan. 18 Meeting

First social meeting of the West End Fish and Game association will be held Jan. 18 in the Ontario American Legion hall. John Gregory, Fullerton, will be the speaker.

Several hundred persons are expected to be in attendance. Dave Vasbinder is president and Don L. Meredith is secretary.

50 Firms After Work On New $400,000 Auditorium

Wide interest is being shown in the construction of Chaffey's auditorium. Bids will be opened by the Chaffey board Jan. 18 in the junior college auditorium. More than 50 concerns have obtained plans and specifications on the project and that many bids are expected.

The outlook is for figures that will be very favorable to the Chaffey district. Within recent weeks cost of materials have declined very noticeably. Competition is also reported to be keen among the bidders. This fact is also likely to result in the lowest possible estimates.

"One disappointing feature about the situation is that no local concerns are figuring on any phase of the project," President Gardiner W. Spring said today. "A Pomona concern is figuring on one of the 10 different units of the general contract. That is the nearest one to this community, most of the others being in Los Angeles."

The specifications state that a bidder may submit a figure on the entire building or on the general contract or on one of 10 different phases of the building. Estimated cost of the building and furnishings is $400,000. The federal government will pay 45 per cent of the total cost, the Chaffey district 55 per cent.

Plans and specifications have been obtained by the following contractors: 12 general, 8 painting, 3 electrical installation, 7 plumbing, 10 heating and ventilation, 6 lighting fixtures, 3 stage equipment, 3 sound and projection and 6 for organ installation. Mr. Spring said he understood at least three firms are going to submit a figure covering construction of the entire project.

It will be some time after the bids are opened before the contract is let, due to the necessity of analyzing the figures to determine the lowest possible total.

Due to the wide interest in the project, bids will be opened in the auditorium, rather than in the small board of education office.

The successful contractor or contractors will be required to select their employes from a list supplied by the California Employment Service. Upland residents wanting a chance to work on the project should register with the Ontario office of the employment service.

ATWOOD STORE IN 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Local Concern Is Celebrating Quarter Century of Service Here

Twenty-five years ago the J. J. Atwood Co. was new in Upland.

On Jan. 6, 1913, five local men purchased the dry goods store from E. A. Bowen. In celebration of its 25 years of service the local company today announced its anniversary sale combined with its clearance sale.

"I recall our first day very clearly," Owen E. Atwood, manager of the store, reminisced today. "It was the morning of the 'big freeze' in 1913."

Associated together at that time were J. J. Atwood, Owen E. Atwood, Glenn M. Atwood, L. N. Kirk and W. C. Reynolds. In later years Mr. Kirk and Mr. Reynolds retired from the company, with the three others continuing as owners of the concern.

During the quarter century the concern has been a leader in civic development and in providing the community with an attractive, aggressive retail concern. It is widely recognized as one of the principal clothing establishments in the Chaffey district.

Rural Mailmen Will Feast on Turkey Here

Annual turkey dinner for the San Bernardino County Rural Letter Carriers association will be held in the American Legion club house Saturday night. About 30 persons will be in attendance.

Harry S. Fies, local R. F. D. carrier, and Mrs. Fies will be host and hostess to the group.

LIGHT DISTRICT MAY BE FORMED

Street Illumination Possible in Alta Loma Through Organization

Alta Loma or any other unincorporated community may obtain street lights by forming a lighting district, C. E. Grier, chairman of the county board of supervisors, said this afternoon. Under consideration in connection with the statement was the reported move in Alta Loma to get street lights there.

"If the Alta Loma people want some of their streets lighted, the county supervisors will be glad to form a lighting district," he said. "Property owners in the district would then be taxed to cover the cost of installation and operation."

The supervisor head said that in most cases the tax for such a purpose is very light. Mr. Grier pointed out that a light district would be similar in operation to a fire district.

H. S. Fies, local R. F. D. mail carrier, is back on duty today after an illness since before New Year's day. Gooding Lydig, substitute carrier, handled the route during his absence.

New Scout Troop Will Be Sponsored by 20-30 Club

Establishment of a new Boy Scout troop in Upland will be effected at the first meeting of the prospective members Monday night. Under sponsorship of the Upland 20-30 club the new troop will be under the leadership of Earl E. Hawthorne.

The club members enthusiastically voted to sponsor the new organization at the club's meeting Tuesday night. A troop committee was elected, consisting of the following: Dr. John S. Tomlin, chairman; Vernon Shiflett, Olaf "Brick" Vaniman, Gilbert Holbrook and Jack Rea.

No. "4" Troop

The new troop will be known as "No. 4". Its meeting place will be in the new Boy Scout club house being built on Third avenue. The new headquarters will also house troops No. 2 and 3. The Presbyterian church, Rotary club and Lions club joined in providing funds and materials for construction of the new building.

Need of a new troop in Upland has been apparent to youth leaders for some time. The present troops are filled to capacity and waiting lists have names of boys eager to participate in the activities. When the 20-30 club accepted the opportunity to sponsor the troop, the new organization of boys was assured.

Hawthorne Is Veteran

Mr. Hawthorne is a veteran in Boy Scout leadership. For many years he has been connected with troop No. 1, sponsored by the Methodist church, with its meeting place in the basement of Crowell hall.

Under the new arrangement Harold Stickney will return to the active leadership of this troop. Mr. Stickney has been Scout leader, but for a time he retired to the position of assistant.

Fred Dundas and Harold Salisbury have been appointed assistant Scout leaders under Mr. Stickney.

Following the organization meeting of troop No. 4 Monday, announcement will be made of Mr. Hawthorne's staff and troop officers.

LOWER INSURANCE RATE WILL BRING CHAFFEY SAVINGS

50 Cents Per $100 for Five Years Is New Scale in Effect Today

Making possible a saving of several hundred dollars annually is the new insurance rate adopted this week by the Chaffey board of education. The new rate of 50 cents for each $100 for five years covers all the buildings on the Chaffey campus.

For the first time in history the rate is that low and for the first time the same rate applies to all the Chaffey buildings. The former rate was 35 cents for three years on the junior college buildings and 46 cents for three years on the high school buildings.

Several factors are responsible for the all-time record low rate. The major reason is reported to be the fact that almost every structure is new and consequently more fire resistant. Another reason is a change in the law permitting insurance on school buildings to be written for a five-year period instead of three years.

The new rate culminates many months of study on the part of the Chaffey board of education members. More than a year ago the school property was appraised to determine the total insurance needed.

The insurance business will be divided by the board among Upland and Ontario agents on the basis of ratings. This plan of dividing up the business has been in effect for several years.

He was critically injured when his machine collided with one driven by Emil Grafen, Los Angeles. He is suffering from a fracture of the skull and a brain hemorrhage.

The accident occurred on Valley boulevard, six miles east of Ontario. Grafen, who is 75 years of age, suffered a deep cut over his left eye. Due to his advanced age, his recovery is reported doubtful. After being given emergency treatment, he was removed to a Los Angeles hospital.

Pictures Discussed At Regular Meeting Of Picture Council

An informal meeting of the Chaffey District Motion Picture council was held Thursday morning in the junior library room of the Upland public library, with Mrs. Geo. W. West, president, presiding.

The scheduled speaker was unable to be present and the greater portion of the time was devoted to a general discussion of recently released films.

Mrs. West also reviewed several articles in motion picture magazines giving interesting information concerning motion pictures.

A brief routine business session was conducted by Mrs. West.

The volume of applications for licenses has been steady from day to day although there has been a slight increase during the latter part of the week. Mrs. Adelaide H. Plum, assistant secretary, handles the applications and records the money. Oscar Johnston makes daily trips from the local office to Pomona, where the money, registration certificates and exchanged for plates.

Sale of the Carpenter hotel by Cecil Chambers and Charles Pooler to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Worrell was announced today. The new owners came here recently from Onawa, Iowa. The building is located at 175 East A street. It was purchased by the two local men at a public auction sale about a year ago.

The Worrell transaction was handled by Pearl Smith, local real estate woman.

LEGG IN SUPPORT OF GRIER'S PLAN

Democratic Candidate for Governor Endorses Proposal

C. E. Grier's proposed plan for a state-wide relief program has won the support of Herbert C. Legg, member of the Los Angeles county board of supervisors, who is a Democratic candidate for governor. Mr. Legg, in making a southland tour in the interests of his candidacy, is basing his campaign on Mr. Grier's proposed relief set-up.

"There has been a very favorable reaction to the plan," Mr. Legg said in San Bernardino yesterday. "I think it will have substantial and wide support throughout the state."

Mr. Grier's plan would limit the counties' burden in supporting indigents and unemployables and would assign to the state the entire responsibility of aid for the blind, the aged and orphans. The Upland resident has proposed the plan as a means of relieving the present heavy and mandatory financial responsibilities of counties in caring for indigent and handicapped residents.

Mr. Grier, who is chairman of the county board of supervisors and president of the state supervisors' association, has called a meeting of the latter group for Jan. 28 in San Francisco. At that time the plan will be presented in detail to the supervisors and to representatives of 12 state-wide organizations.

A year ago Mr. Grier's proposed relief plan was given large majorities in being passed by the state legislature. Gov. Frank F. Merriam, however, vetoed the measure.

The Grier plan would relieve the county of a huge tax burden.

44 NEW STUDENTS IN LOCAL SCHOOLS

Families Locating Here During Holidays Boost Enrollment

Forty-four new students are today enrolled in the Upland schools, their parents having moved here since the schools closed for the Christmas holidays.

During the first week of 1938 teachers have been enrolling new students, this being one of the largest total of newcomers ever reported within a week.

In the Upland junior high school are six new students. The Fannie D. Noe school registered 20 new students. It also reported a loss of nine students due to their parents moving from Upland. In the Sierra Vista school are 18 new pupils. The Eighteenth Street school did not have any increase.

ANTI-WAR PROFIT MOVEMENT GIVEN BOOST BY GROUP

American Legion Auxiliary Asks for Public Support In Urging Proposal

One of the several important matters coming before the Upland unit of the American Legion Auxiliary at the meeting held last evening in the Legion club house, was the reading and discussion of the Universal Service bill designed to take all profit out of war.

The bill was read by Mrs. Earl E. Marsh, legislative chairman, who discussed its provisions and emphasized the importance of general support of the measure.

All members of the unit were urged to write immediately to Congressman Harry R. Sheppard, Senator Hiram Johnson and Senator William G. McAdoo, asking their support of the bill.

The letters must be sent in before Jan. 13, and the Auxiliary members suggest that letters be written by all men and women who are interested in this movement to prevent war.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Anton Zenz, unit president, and reports were received from the committee chairmen. Of particular interest were the reports of Christmas welfare work made by Mrs. Elsie Larkin, child welfare chairman, and Mrs. Thos. E. Howarton, rehabilitation chairman.

Plans were made for a dessert bridge party to be held as a valentine event, the date being Tuesday, Feb. 15. The proceeds will go to a fund being raised to purchase a handsome banner for the unit. Mrs. Elsie Larkin is chairman of arrangements.

The unit members were very much pleased over the receipt of a "thank you" card from Maurice Goodban, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Goodban, who is gradually recovering his health after a serious illness. Maurice, whose father is a member of the Legion post, was presented with a Christmas gift by his friends in the unit and the card he sent bore his own signature.

The program presented by wo youthful singers was an enjoyable feature of the meeting, the two talented children, Laurie Eugenia La Verne of 307 South Euclid avenue, and Baby June LaVerne, now of Upland, sang two duets and each contributed a solo. The little girls have beautiful voices and their numbers were very much enjoyed.

The meeting closed with a social hour during which refreshments were served. Hostesses were Mrs. Maud M. Brogan and Mrs. Jesse Monroe. The meeting was attended by an unusually large number of members.

New officers to be installed are: E. Thomson Derfer, master; E. Tweed Stone, senior warden; George Cassell, junior warden; H. C. Kennedy, secretary; W. W. Horak, treasurer.

Reservations for the dinner should be made with the retiring secretary, Wm. S. Avery, who has served the lodge most efficiently in that capacity for about ten years.

Legion Members in Business Meeting

A business meeting was held by the Upland post of the American Legion in the club house Tuesday night. Commander Homer T. Goslin was in charge.

A popular feature of the session was a dinner served under the direction of Archie J. Nielson.

The post's membership quota lacks 12 from being reached. A week's drive is under way to get the quota of 80 members.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

Make ye ready the way of the Lord.—Mark 1:3.

Mounting Costs of Local Relief

The continual rapid increase in the relief costs is causing a great deal of worry—especially among property owners, upon whom most of the cost is thrown and which is rapidly getting to the point where property owners cannot meet the cost. It is therefore easily seen that property must be relieved and that this tax must be raised by some other method—and perhaps the transaction tax is the solution.

In discussing the relief problem particularly as it affects this county the San Bernardino Sun, in quoting figures recently given out by the California Taxpayers association, says:

Taxpayers are taking heed as to the increased financial burden that welfare activities of various kinds are placing on the owners of homes and farms and other real property.

According to the California Taxpayers association the welfare case load of San Bernardino county increased 43.2 per cent between January and October of 1937, jumping from a total of 3,350 persons in January to 4,796 in October. The list includes the needy aged, the blind, orphans and the unemployable indigents.

The number of aged receiving aid increased from 2,236 in January to 3,286 in October, the blind case load increased from 72 in January to 98 in October, orphans totalled 431 in January and 573 in October, unemployable indigents increased from 611 in January to 839 in October.

Translated into costs for the taxpayers of San Bernardino county the figures are: Budget allowances for the fiscal year 1937-38 $2,115,848 as compared with welfare expenditures of $1,081,966 for the previous year.

In the state as a whole the welfare case load increased from 133,094 for January to 157,853 for October, an increase of 18.6 per cent. The number of needy aged persons receiving relief in the state increased from 65,755 in January to 89,168 in October, an increase of 35.6 per cent.

The figures indicate clearly why owners of homes and farms are protesting that the burden cannot be placed upon their shoulders. The vast majority of home and farm owners are barely able to provide for themselves. They insist there must be a broader tax base for such expenses, particularly the cost of old age pensions.

The next session of the legislature will be confronted with the demand for a shifting of the responsibility for the expense of old age pensions. The proposal that a portion of the sales tax be used to carry what is now the counties' share of old age pensions is gaining support.

The movement is a beginning of recognition that old age pensions must be supported by some sort of a transaction act. The first step will probably be to place the local responsibility under the present arrangement fully upon the state. That accomplished, the drive should proceed to make effective the idea that a broad national tax shall be levied to finance all pensions; that such a tax should be based on a pay-as-we-go theory, and we know of no better suggestion than the transaction act, with such adjustments as are needed to guard against making one line of industry carry more than a competing line.

Time was when Dixie had a monopoly on the growing of cotton—but such is no longer the case. Now old King Cotton is taking in considerably more territory—and today California can rightfully call itself a cotton state. Picking is now under way in huge acreages in the San Joaquin Valley—with 30,000 to 40,000 harvesters at work on the big job. Dixie's sceptre is further challenged by the fact that—except for the Mississippi Delta cotton—cotton produced in California is superior to that produced in the south. Since 1932 there has been a "white gold" rush through central California that has tripled the acreage and in some communities has changed oil producing communities into new agricultural centers. In five months last year—from March to July—the value of cotton exports from the Los Angeles-Long Beach harbor reached nearly $23,000,000, surpassing that of the oil shipments, which totaled $19,000,000. That gives one some idea of the extent of the growth of the cotton industry in this state and also further emphasizes the great diversity of agricultural products that are grown in California—as well as diversity of other resources.

The employers of the nation—who during 1937 paid approximately $900,000,000 in pay roll taxes—began paying an increased rate this week, from two to three per cent. As a result the pay roll tax during 1938 will take about $1,350,000,000 from the till, it is estimated by the Social Security Board. In three states—California, Rhode Island and New Jersey—where the employes also pay part of this tax, which goes into the unemployment insurance fund, the employe tax is also increased. The tax for unemployment is not a part of the old age benefits tax of the Social Security Act, which is also levied upon employer and employe alike. This tax remains at one per cent—paid both by employer and employe—until 1939, after which it will be graduated until it reaches three per cent in 1949.

It is no unusual trait for a person to grow extremely fond of pets—especially cats and dogs. But it would seem at least a rather queer trait when owners of such pets leave legacies to them. Two notable recent instances are those of the woman who left a trust fund of $10,000 to insure "Kit-Kat," a small black feline, it being specified that she was to have a warm, soft bed near the stove in winter—fresh tender liver and hot fresh milk every day, with a doctor to take care of her when she got sick. Just ten days after Kit-Kat inherited her fortune she died—leaving about $9985 intact. "My dog Teddy" was left a similar amount by a doting owner who described him as just a mutt with a lot of personality. And now the estate of Teddy's mistress is being sued by irate relatives in an effort to break the trust. People grow mighty fond of pets—but it seems there could be some better way to dispose of one's money. For instance, why not will it to someone who needed the money and would insure the pet a good and comfortable home?

The Panay incident now seems to be closed with satisfaction to the United States government. So far as we can see, there can be no good accomplished in showing the moving pictures of the affair. However, if the movies are no more sensational than the photographs we see in the metropolitan newspapers there will not be much in them to get excited about. It is a good thing that Japan knows the attitude of this country in regard to such things—and it is equally advisable that they see such an uncalled for tragedy does not occur again. Those "accidents" that are revealed to be not accidents when the evidence is produced cannot be repeated many times without real trouble resulting.

P.-T. A. PLANS FOR IMPORTANT EVENT

Parents of Eighteenth Street District Urged To Meet With Board

Of special importance to all parents in the Eighteenth street school district will be the meeting of the Eighteenth Street Parent-Teacher association to be held at the school house next Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 11, at 2:30, when members of the school board will be present to discuss the reorganization of the Upland schools.

The rearrangement of the grades will be of concern to the Eighteenth street children when they advance to the high grades and it is very important that each family in that district be represented by at least one member.

A second special feature of the meeting will be an address on "Peace Through Understanding" by Mrs. Alfred R. Kipp of San Antonio Heights. Mrs. Kipp is a widely known student of international affairs and is an able speaker. The fact that her subject is also the theme of the national P.-T. A., or Congress of Parents and Teachers, will add interest to her address.

Having finished with the construction of a new packing house at Oxnard, Clyde Jones, Upland contractor, will begin the supervision of a $210,000 packing house at Sata Barbara next week. He serves in the capacity of superintendent, directing all phases of the activity. The Santa Barbara building is the largest he has handled in this capacity.

Frank Gingerich, local plastering contractor, did the plastering and he employed several Uplanders.

LECTURE SERIES AT CHAFFEY WILL FEATURE LEADERS

Philosophical Problems Will Be Theme of Addresses Beginning Jan. 13

"Re-thinking Religion", discussions of a scientific approach to philosophical problems, is the topic of a series of Thursday evening lectures to be given in the auditorium of Chaffey junior college, according to President Gardiner W. Spring. The first of these evening programs will be at 8 o'clock, Jan. 13, with Dr. Henry Kendall Booth, pastor of the First Congregational church of Long Beach, as the speaker.

Dr. Booth will discuss the question "Does Faith in Progress Lend Significance to Life?" He will be remembered for the part which he took in the religious programs of 1935, "The Church Speaks".

Three other speakers who will appear on the following Thursday evenings include Bishop James Chamberlain Baker, resident Bishop of Religion for the Pacific Coast area of the Methodist Episcopal church. His topic will be "What Is the Place of Religion in a Democracy?" "In What Ways Have Men Sought the Good Life?" will be the subject of the third talk by Dr. Everett Dean Martin, who appeared in the Thursday evening series of "Religion and Philosophy," and as the luncheon speaker at the recent Civic Conference.

The final speaker will be Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin of the Wilshire Boulevard Temple, who will lecture on the subject, "What Can We Believe Without Surrender of Intellectual Integrity?"

S. Earle Blakeslee, chairman of the Chaffey music department, will direct the Chaffey a cappella choir in a concert of sacred music Jan. 13. This will be the first local appearance of the a cappella choir in 1938.

Use of Barricades To Slow Up Cars On Arrow Vetoed

After a trial during December, the use of "saw horses" as barricades on Arrow highway in front of the Fannie D. Noe school has been discontinued.

As an experiment, the barricades were placed in an effort to slow up traffic in front of the school. Chief of Police E. C. Mehl said that due to the many complaints against the barricades the plan was dropped. Complaints came, he said, from parents of children and from motorists.

Their practicability in slowing up traffic was also questioned.

SICK LEAVES FOR TEACHERS ORDERED

Chaffey Board Allows Five Days' Pay Annually For Illness

Specific provisions for sick leave on full pay, with longer periods of absence from sickness covered by the provisions in the California school code were made for the teaching staff of the Chaffey system Tuesday afternoon by unanimous action of the Chaffey board of education.

The board passed the resolution for the sake of teaching efficiency and in order to safeguard the health of the students and teachers. All previous motions of the board on this subject were revoked.

The resolution provided that each teacher be given five days leave of absence for reason of sickness yearly on full pay, this being cumulative over a period of three years. The board may require satisfactory evidence of the necessity of absence when sick leave exceeds four consecutive school days.

Should the absence exceed five days, or the cumulative sick leave period, the regulations prescribed by the California School Code shall take effect. This section provides that the teacher be paid the difference between the salary of the substitute and his salary.

Acceptance of the "Report of Progress", progress reports of standing committees, adoption of text books, and other routine matters concluded the business.

Artists To Appear Sunday Evening in Cucamonga Church

Residents of the Cucamonga-Alta Loma area are to have a rare treat in art and music Sunday evening, when Mr. and Mrs.

Wm. A. Bixler, who have traveled over 27 states in five years, come to the Cucamonga Community church at the 7 o'clock serice, according to the pastor, Rev. William A. Tieck.

For the past six years Mr. and Mrs. Bixler have been traveling and giving their unique illustrations of old songs and hymns by colored crayon sketching and music, Mr. Bixler drawing rapid pictures at the same time that he talks and sings, while Mrs. Bixler plays the piano accordion.

Only by making personal trips to see the artist was the pastor able to secure the Cucamonga appointment, and he hopes the people of the locality will avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing and hearing persons of such reputation as the Bixlers.

There will be no admission charge to this program, with only the usual free will offering being taken.

The program is especially adapted to children and the pastor emphasized an especial invitation to parents to bring their children and make it a family night.

Following the regular service, Mr. and Mrs. Bixler will be the guests of the Epworth League in a social with the young people

Man Burned During Smudging in 1937 Seeking $70,000

The Lucas Ranching Co., Cucamonga, has been sued for $70,000 damages as the result of alleged injuries to one of its employes during the long orchard heating season last year.

Bert Hartkopf, Ontario, has asked damages for alleged permanent disability he suffered when fire from a heater ignited his oil-soaked clothing and burned him severely from the waist down. He alleges officials of the company were negligent in not warning him of the danger of filling a burning smudge pot with crude oil.

County Will Have Nursery Stock Available for Distribution

Continuation of the county's project for the propagation of trees, flowers and shrubbery is assured today. The federal government has alloted $29,284 as a WPA project and the county is to contribute $2,966. W. H. Taylor, county superintendent of buildings and grounds, is in charge of the county nursery.

Trees and shrubbery may be taken from the nursery and placed on county property for beautification purposes.

Work being done includes caring for propagated stock, including flowering plants and shrubs, and transplanting onto county grounds; digging, disinfecting, rooting, pruning of plants, performing tree surgery for eradication of scale and insects, renovating lawns, eradicating puncture vine, crab grass and mustard.

The project is being conducted on the grounds of county hospital.

Ralph B. Smith, WPA area manager, said the project is designed not only to propagate plants for the county, but to train workers in plant work.

National Truck Week Will Be Featured by Chevrolet Display

The first local public display of Chevrolet's new and improved 1938 Chevrolet trucks will be held in the Alan A. Couch showrooms next week. The display is part of National Truck week, designed to exhibit the latest developments in delivery and haulage equipment and at the same the local agency, said.

National Truck week, Mr. Davis explained, is the direct result of the unusual volume of favorable comment received by Chevrolet officials concerning the display of the new trucks at the automobile shows.

"Chevrolet dealers throughout the country are joining in National Truck week because of the favorable reaction at these shows," Mr. Davis declared. "Comment, and subsequent orders revealed that businessmen are anxious to find a means of improving their delivery and haulage equipment anl at the same time curtail costs."

Psychology Lectures Resumed Thursday At Club House

The second 10 weeks course in psychology sponsored by the Upland Woman's club with Dr. Herschel R. Griffin of Chaffey as instructor, opened Thursday morning at the Woman's club house. The succeeding sessions will be held on each Thursday morning and all members of the club are eligible to attend without charge.

Among the subjects mentioned were "Personality Differences and How to Make the Most of Them," "Advertising as Seen Through the Psychological Searchlight," "Psychology of Straight Thinking, or Reasoning," "Efficient Use of One's Energy," "Psychology of Propaganda," "Interpretation of Dreams, Illusions, and the Subconscious," "How to Develop Memory," "Psychology in the Home," "Emotions and Health," and "Psychology and Religion."

At the second session to be held next Thursday, Dr. Griffin will continue briefly the discussion of the psychology of reading and will take up some of the several topics outlined.

UNIQUE BOOK LENT BY MRS. WOODBRIDGE

San Francisco Directory for 1864 Filled With Many "Queer Things"

Bearing the prosaic title of "Business Directory and Mercantile Guide of San Francisco for Year of 1864-65," yet crammed with the romance of the early West, a unique book has been lent to the Upland public library by Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge, the volume having been called to mind when she saw the "Wells Fargo" picture exhibit at the library.

The book, a curiosity in the art of printing, is almost as interesting in its makeup as in its contents. The advertisements, works of art in those days, are printed in the fanciest type, one particular "adv." carrying no less than 16 different kinds of type.

Not only does the volume list the various businesses, giving complete histories of the firms, but it also carries full information about mail routes, stage routes, regulations of the primary school, high school and normal, with courses of study and text books needed, and many other things concerning the civic life of the city. There are also editorial comments on the high cost of government, the extravagances of the very wealthy and the recklessness of youth.

In one chapter there is a history of an Old Fellows library, which belonged exclusively to the I. O. O. F. of San Francisco, and at that time had about 4000 volumes of works on California, which was a larger collection than could be found in any other library. Besides many valuable books, including Audubon's Birds of North America in 13 volumes, (the local library here just purchased this in one volume), there was an "extensive and valuable cabinet of curiosities, embracing specimens from all the celebrated mines in California, Nevada Territory and Mexico, as well as botany, concology, orientthology, entomology and zoology of this state and the Pacific coast."

Information concerning the mail includes this paragraph:

"San Francisco and Los Angeles mail. Daily (Sunday excepted). Distance 450 miles. Schedule time, three and a half days. McLaughlin & Fuller, contractors. Eight days between San Francisco and Portland. The Trans-Continental Mail, via Great Salt Lake, from Atchison, Mo., to San Francisco. Distance, 1,962 miles. Schedule time for letters (printed matter not taken) 20 days in summer and 23 days in winter."

If you want enemies, excel others; if you want friends, let others excel you.—Colton.

Mrs. Robert I. Hodgin, who was taken to San Antonio Community hospital Tuesday for special medical treatment, is reported to be doing very nicely today. She was quite ill for a short time.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to our neighbors and other friends who cheered our beloved husband and father during his illness and we acknowledge our heartfelt appreciation of the many kindnesses and sympathy extended us in our bereavement. Signed—Mrs. Luther Hayden and children.—adv.

FIRST MENNONITE CHURCH TO OBSERVE 35TH ANNIVERSARY

Special Program Planned for Wednesday Evening at Church Meeting

Recalling the organization of the church on Jan. 4, 1903, in the kitchen of the Schmutz home in Alta Loma, the congregation of the First Mennonite church of Upland is preparing to celebrate the thirty-fifth anniversary of the church with a special program to be given next Wednesday evening, Jan. 12, when the annual business meeting is held.

The Rev. Lester Hostetler, present pastor of the church, has secured interesting information concerning the early days of the church and its growth from a membership of 18 to its present number, well over 300, with a well organized Sunday school, four Christian Endeavor societies, two Women's Missionary societies and a Men's Brotherhood.

Of the 18 charter members, who aided in the organization of the church on Jan. 4, 1903, 10 still are living, they being Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ledig, Mrs. Bertha K. Ledig, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ledig, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haury, all of Upland; Mrs. Christian Schmutz of Alta Loma, Rev. M. M. Horsch, Beatrice, Neb.; and Peter S. Haury of New York. The first Mennonite family in the community was that of Henry Rees, who came from Ashland, Ohio, in 1895, settled in Pomona, and later moved to San Dimas. They were followed a few years later by the Ledig families, who came from Iowa and located on Hellman avenue, near Alta Loma, then known as the Ioamosa Colony. The spiritual needs of these first settlers was ministered to by the Rev. Jacob J. Voth, who then lived at Pasadena but drove to Upland with horse and buggy once a month for preaching services. Mr. Voth now resides at 403 North Campus avenue, near the present church building.

A Sunday school was organized in 1902. According to the records, both the Sunday school and the church meetings were held in "the roomy Schmutz kitchen," in their home on Hellman avenue. The organization grew, moved its place of meeting to the old Sauerwein building in Upland, and a few years later, in 1906, built a new church on Sixth avenue.

The present building, a commodious and modern church plant on Campus avenue, was erected in 1925 at a cost of $40,000. A few years ago an addition was built to the church and a pipe organ installed—the latter a gift from Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ledig.

The Rev. M. M. Horsch was the first pastor of the church, serving from 1903 to 1925, except during the three year period, 1915 to 1918, when he was traveling as field evangelist, and the Rev. A. S. Shelley served the church as supply pastor. The Rev. Albert Penner, now pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church at New Haven, Conn., and others supplied the pulpit during 1925 and until the fall of 1927 when the present pastor, the Rev. Lester Hostetler, on leave of absence from his church at Sugarcreek, Ohio, shepherded the flock until the spring of 1929. He was followed by the Rev. A. J. Neuenschwander, who remained four years. The Rev. Mr. Hostetler accepted the call to return in 1933 and has been pastor of the church since the fall of that year.

In speaking of the church and its work, the Rev. Mr. Hostetler said:

"The church succeeded in those early days because it was located in a thriving, prosperous community, made up of people who had the courage and faith of the pioneer, and an unfailing trust in God. Together with the other fine churcehs in the community, the First Mennonite church aims to render its share of service by exalting Christ and His way of life."

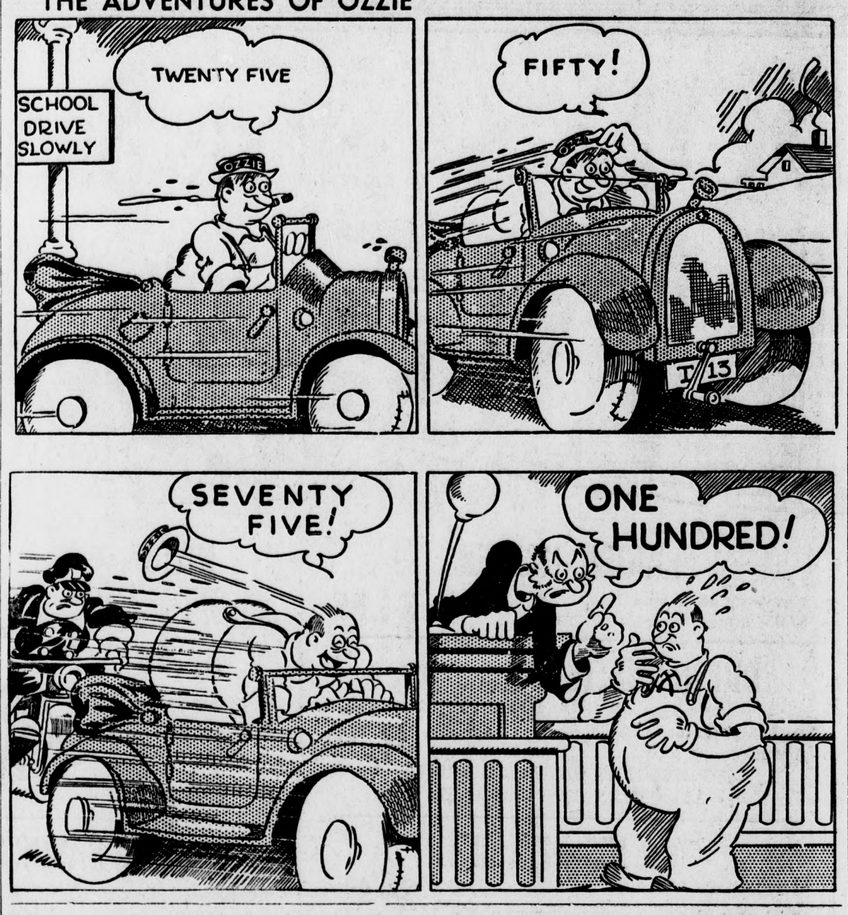

Allura Dairy First In High Production

Five highest producing cows in the Allura Farm dairy herd were also the highest in total production of any other five cows in the county.

This is the report of A. L. Campbell, assistant county agent, on the cow testing report for December. The five cows produced 96.3 pounds of butterfat which was nearly 20 pounds more than the record of any other five cows. The local dairy has a herd numbering nearly 100 cows.

Chamber Obtaining 1938 Car Plates for Many Persons In District

With scores of local motorists using the Upland chamber of commerce as the agency for obtaining 1938 automobile license plates, Mrs. Adelaide Plum, assistant secretary, said the service would be given only one more week.

All motorists wanting to obtain their licenses through the local office must present their car tax notice, registration certificate and the money. Usually the plates are available at the local office one day after the material has been left with Mrs. Plum.

While Mrs. Plum is actually in charge of the service, Oscar S. Johnston, 279 First avenue, is of great assistance. He is making the trips from the Upland office to the Pomona headquarters of the state division of motor vehicles. He is making the trips as a service to the community through the chamber organization.

"We are very glad to assist local motorists in obtaining their new licenses but we will not be able to keep up the service after next week," Mrs. Plum said. After that people in the Upland district may obtain their licenses direct from Sacramento or at one of the state offices, either in Pomona or San Bernardino.

"More persons responded to the chamber's announcement of the service than was anticipated," she continued. "We urge all interested persons to file for their plates as early in the week as possible."

Feb. 4 is the final date motorists may obtain the plates without penalty.

Goose Dinner Marks Scout Meeting Held At Hawthorne Home

Earl E. Hawthorne, who is to be scoutmaster of troop No. 4, the new Boy Scout organization, and a number of the Scouts who are assisting in the organization, met on a recent evening at the Hawthorne home, 904 West Eighth street, to discuss plans for the new troop.

Because Mr. Hawthorne had made a recent hunting expedition into the Salton Sea region he was able to make a special occasion of the Scout meeting by serving the boys a wild goose dinner, several excellently cooked geese gracing the table—for a short time. The boys found the dinner exactly to their liking and were able to tackle their organization plans with renewed enthusiasm.

Another meeting will be held next Monday evening in the new Scout house on Third avenue.

In the new troop will be several Scouts who have "grown up" in troop No. 1, of which Mr. Hawthorne has been assistant scoutmaster and scoutmaster, resigning to lead the new organization. Among these boys will be James Livermore, assistant scoutmaster; Ralph Owen, Morris Lusk, Kobe Shoji, Duane Harris, Warren Hamilton, Fred Merha and Rochard Goodban, all of whom will serve as junior assistant scoutmasters.

Others present for the dinner were Clegg Betz, Harold Salisbury, Paul Hamilton and Kiyanaga Okamoto, who will remain with troop No. 1.

It's Time to Think Of Making Report on Incomes During 1937

It's time to begin thinking of making out income tax reports. Blanks on which reports are to be made are available.

All single persons whose net income in 1937 was $1,000 or more and all married couples whose net income was $2,500 or more are required by law to file a tax return on or before March 15. Every person whose gross income was at least $5,000 must file a return regardless of the amount of net income.

Forms will be mailed to all taxpayers on record. Failure to receive a form through the mail, however, does not relieve a taxpayer from filing a return, according to Nat Regan, income tax collector.

Members of Upland chapter, Order of Eastern Star, participated in the meeting held in Fontana Monday evening when Mrs. Benjamon F. Warmer of Ontario, worthy grand matron for the Order of Eastern Star in California, and Robert Purl Easley, worthy grand patron, made their official visit. Fontana Orange Blossom chapter served as hostess organization and Upland chapter was assisting hostess.

The distinguished guests and Star members, numbering 125, gathered in the Fontana Farms inn for a 6:30 dinner. Emphasizing the theme suggested by the name of the hostess chapter, miniature orange trees were used as the unique place favors.

At the conclusion of the dinner the group repaired to the Fontana Woman's club house, where approximately 125 other Star members from many chapters joined them for the regular chapter session.

The worthy matrons of the two hostess chapters, Mrs. Hazel Tate of Orange Blossom and Mrs. Don E. Hill of the Upland chapter, presided during the chapter meeting, Orange Blossom chapter opening and closing the session, while the Upland chapter put on the escort work and presented the program.

Mrs. Warmer made an inspiring talk for the good of the order during the chapter session and Mr. Easley spoke briefly. Both officials were presented with valuable gifts.

The program presented by the Upland chapter included a group of vocal selections by the men's quartet of the Upland Methodist church, the singers being E. H. Genung, Walter W. Horak, Ralph H. Marr and Bert Hendy, and several short poems were beautifully read by James Neill Northe of Ontario.

Knight-Engel Ceremony Recent Event

Of interest to a number of Upland friends of the couple was the marriage on Sunday evening of Miss Evelyn Knight, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Knight of Ontario, and Duncan Campbell Engel, son of Mrs. Henry H. Engel, also of Ontario.

The wedding, a beautiful candlelight event, was held in Bethel Congregational church, of which the bride's father is pastor, the ceremony being performed at 6 o'clock by the Rev. B. B. Weatherall of Palm Springs, uncle of the bridegroom.

A candle-lighted white floral cross and other white blossoms and palms were used in the decorations and the church was lighted entirely by white candles.

For the pre-ceremony music Joseph Clokey, organist of Pomona college, played several selections, the church choir sang "O Perfect Love," with Winston Richards singing the tenor solo, and Mrs. Luther B. Mollison of Long Beach, sister of the bridegroom, sang "Beloved, It Is Morn".

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white bridal satin with tulle veil and carried a white Bible with shower of white orchids.

Miss Dorothea Mildred Knight of Whittier was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Lillian May Wallender of Fort Sereven, Ga.; Mrs. Harold Krehbiel (Alice Gunn) of South Gate, Miss Mary Virginia Wilson, Miss Kathryn Mack and Miss Jane Evans. The flower girls were Diane and Yvonne Mollison, nieces of the bridegroom.

Jack Engel, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and the ushers were Sheldon Smith of Whittier, Paul Wilson, Virgil Harris, Karl Joehnck and Clark Roloff, all of Ontario.

The ceremony was followed by a reception in the church social rooms.

The bride is a graduate of La Jolla high school and Pomona college and had one year of graduate work at Claremont colleges. She is organist for her father's church and for Draper's mortuary.

Mr. Engel, who received his education in Canada, is a former resident of Upland, moving from here to Ontario last year. For some time he owned the Ford agency in Upland and now is on the sales force of an eastern concern.

Mr. and Mrs. Engel left following the reception for a wedding trip into Mexico. They will be at home after Jan. 17 at 706 North Euclid avenue, Ontario.

LEMON GROWERS LOSE 32 TO 33 IN LEAGUE CONTEST

Gilmore Lions Take Thrilling Overtime Hoop Battle Last Night

The score was 33 to 32, but that really doesn't depict the thrill in the basketball game in the Chaffey gymnasium last night in which the Upland Lemon Growers quintet went down in a brilliant finish. Gilmore Lions, Ontario, took the game in an overtime period.

At the finish of the regular playing period, the two teams were tied at 31 points. Throughout the game both quintets battled back and forth in a game that marked the 1938 resumption of the industrial league. The hoop play is part of the night school program under the direction of Leo A. Wadsworth.

The line-up:

Lemon Growers, 32		Gilmore, 33
Hopkins, 4	F.	Wallace, 9
Fuller, 4	F.	Ghormley, 12
Dean, 13	C.	Pinney, 2
Wilson, 0	G.	Kamansky, 0
Patton, 11	G.	H. Weldon, 10

Substitutes — Lemon Growers: Owens and Stubblefield; Gilmore: Rogan.

Two other games were played, Ontario Post Office winning 18 to 10 over the Hotpoint five and Exchange Orange Products Co. team outscored the Torch club 26 to 12.

Miss Hanson Speaks During Meeting of Presbyterian Women

Miss Edith Hanson, who returned shortly before Christmas from the Hawaiian Islands, where she spent the past year in social service work, told many interesting things concerning the islands when she spoke Thursday afternoon at the meeting of the Presbyterian Woman's Missionary society.

The meeting opened at 1:30 with Mrs. Kent W. Fuller presiding and with an unusually large number in attendance. Mrs. R. C. Stone and Mrs. R. C. Norton composed the program committee.

Miss Hanson told of numerous old traditions of the Hawaiians, to which some of the older natives still cling, although many of them have been discarded in the face of the general Americanization and Christianization of the people. Other races, particularly from the Orient, are dominating the islands, Miss Hanson said, as she told of the mingling of the several races in school and social life.

The Ladies Aid society met in the morning for a business session, with Mrs. F. E. O'Brien presiding. Routine business matters were given attention and committee reports were made. Members of the society served the luncheon at the noon hour.

M. B. Martinez Rites Are Conducted Today

Funeral services were held today for M. B. Martinez, pioneer resident of the district, who died Tuesday at his home, 994 South Archibald avenue, Cucamonga. He had been ill two weeks. He had been active in the wine industry for many years.

Several months ago Mr. Martinez applied to the state railroad commission for permission to operate the Pacific Electric bus between Upland and Ontario.

Surviving Mr. Martinez are his widow; a son, Matias Martinez; a daughter, Angelina Martinez, and a brother, Aquilina Martinez, all of Cucamonga, and an aunt, Maria Martinez, Ontario.

Services will be held in the Church of S. Seconda d'Asti, Guasti, with J. B. Draper & Co. in charge.

Cucamonga-Alta Loma

Children to Give Program

Children of the first and second grades of the Alta Loma school will present the program at the meeting of the Parent-Teacher association to be held next Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 11, at 2:30, it is announced by the P.-T. A. president, Mrs. Clifford Beekman.

The children will appear in a pageant of the soil, dramatizing the process of sewing and reaping. Divisions of the pageant will be plowing the ground, spading the ground, planting the seed, growing the plant, hoeing and burning of weeds and gathering of the vegetables.

The program also will include special musical numbers.

The regular business meeting of the association will be conducted by Mrs. Beekman.

The showing of two particularly interesting sound motion pictures featured the meeting of the Cucamonga Central Parent-Teacher association held Wednesday evening in the school auditorium, the evening hour being selected in order that the men might attend.

The pictures were shown through the courtesy of Ernest Ball, representative of a large oil company, and provided one of the most enjoyable programs given for the P.-T. A.

One picture, of special interest to the children and also enjoyed by the adults, was "Itchy Scratchy" the story of a small bear captured in a Canadian forest, and his pal, a playful dog. The picture showed many animals of the northern forests and gave much information concerning the wild life of that country.

The second picture, "Ceiling Unlimited," gave a fascinating history of aviation beginning with the first attempts to fly in a bird-like apparatus before the day of modern aviation. Modern airplanes, the factories where they are built, scenes from recent air races, views of Boulder Dam, Grand Canyon and San Francisco's bridges, all were included in the picture.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Chick Ristine, Ralph Westerberg, vice-president, presided during the evening and conducted a brief routine business session, and at the conclusion of the program open house was held and the parents visited the various class rooms.

Club Told of Sweden

Members of the Cucamonga-Alta Loma Woman's club were given a vivid picture of Sweden, its topography, its people and their customs, its industries and its highly socialized political government, when Miss Esther Anderson of Upland was presented as the speaker at the club meeting held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry M. Wright, 936 Washington boulevard, Upland.

Miss Anderson, a member of the Chaffey faculty, and her mother spent last summer visiting with their relatives in northern Sweden, where Miss Anderson not only made a study of the Swedish language, but also of the economic, political and social conditions—a study she expects to resume at some future time.

The liner on which Miss Anderson and her mother sailed from New York was Swedish in every detail, even to the language used by the crew and staff.

With their relatives in Sweden, Miss Anderson had opportunity to observe the home life of the country and she found the people thrifty, prosperous and remarkably contented and happy.

Although the Swedish people pay taxes, as do all other peoples, they do not consider the levies as a burden and taxes are not a subject of general conversation or complaint as in many other countries. The reason for this attitude, Miss Anderson stated, is the socialized uses made of the tax money. The funds are carefully expended in the interests of the people and the masses receive so many benefits from their taxes that the payments are considered a privilege.

One instance of such benefits mentioned by Miss Anderson is the government hospitalization provided for all citizens and accepted as is the universal postal service. The industries of the country and the social life also were described by Miss Anderson.

Another delightful feature of the program was the singing of Miss Elizabeteh Wright of Upland, niece of the hostess. Miss Wright sang beautifully "Dawn Light", "Bird Song" and "My Little House". As an encore she sang "The Banjo Song".

The meeting was opened with the usual ceremonies, with the president, Mrs. Francis S. Wagner, presiding, and a brief business session was conducted. Plans made for other meetings include an evening meeting, a costume party and program and other interesting features. The next meeting, Jan. 26, will be held in the Cucamonga library and the librarian, Mrs. Marvin Wangler, will give a book review.

At the conclusion of the meeting yesterday Mrs. Wright served a tempting collation during a pleasant social hour.

CHAFFEY IN FIRST LEAGUE HOOP GAME

Tigers Playing at Santa Ana In Campaign for 1938 League Title

Chaffey high school began its 1938 campaign for the basketball championship this afternoon at Santa Ana. The opening game gives the Tigers one of their toughest assignments.

By now, however, Coach Karl Kaiser has his squad tuned to tough competition. The practice season has been one of the most successful ever held by Chaffey.

Chaffey junior college, another team with a very successful practice record, continues its preliminary work tonight in a game in the Chaffey gymnasium with the Monrovia Athletic club as opponents. The game will begin at 8 p. m.

The high school's second conference game comes Tuesday afternoon, Riverside coming here. From then on the Tigers will play every Friday, the final game being March 4 with Pomona here.

The Tigers won the title in 1937. They will win it again if the basket shooters keep up their starring performance. Chaffey won the La Verne college hoop tournament and lost the Huntington Beach tourney in a last-game defeat by San Diego.

$90 Per Pupil Cost Of Educating Each Student, Is Report

What becomes of California's sales tax revenue?

Most of it goes to meet the cost of California's public educational system, according to Ray Edgar, member of the state board of equalization, which administers the tax.

"The average cost of educating a grammar school pupil for a year, based on average daily attendance, is a little more than $90," Edgar said. "Of this amount $60 is contributed by the state from the general fund, which derives the bulk of its income from proceeds of the sales tax. The balance is raised by taxation of property in the individual school district."

The sum of $90 is contributed by the state for each student attending high school.

"Approximately two-thirds of the cost for grammar and high school education is met by the state, which depends upon the sales tax revenue to meet this cost. Appropriations for junior colleges, teachers' colleges, special schools and the two state universities also come from the general fund."

Enlarged Storage Refrigerator Used In Olson's Market

Traffic Questions Answered Here

Q—I operate a small farm tractor and frequently have to travel a few miles between farms to do work. Is it necessary for me to carry an operator's chauffeur license?

A—No person while driving or operating implements of husbandry incidentally operated or moved over a highway need obtain a chauffeur's or operator's license.

Q—Are running board courtesy lights permitted and what color must they be?

A—Yes, and the bulbs must not exceed 3 candle power; should be white or green and so attached the beams shall not be visible to the front or rear of such vehicle and must not glare.

Q—My nephew is 17 years old, and has an operator's license issued to him in an eastern state. He has been told he cannot operate a motor vehicle in California on such a license.

A—That is correct. Minors who are non-residents between the ages of 16 and 21 must secure a California operator's license 10 days immediately after entering this state, if they wish to operate a motor vehicle.

Q—I am from the east where parked cars must have lights on them. Is it true this is not required in California?

A—Not exactly as you state it. The law states that within a business or residence district whenever there is sufficient light within the lateral boundaries of a highway to reveal a vehicle at a distance of 200 feet no lights need be displayed.

Q—I have reason to believe that my car, which I store in a public garage when out of town on business trips, is being used by mechanics and others. What can I do to impress them with the seriousness of this, as I do not think they intend doing any harm?

A—Such action is serious and no one has a right to use your vehicle without your consent. Should you bring charges and they are convicted punishment may be set by a fine of $1,000 or by imprisonment in the county jail for one year or both. Suggest you report this to your local highway patrol.

Q—On which side of the roadway must a pedestrian walk.

A—Outside of a residence or business district pedestrians must walk upon the left hand edge of the roadway.

Q—For several years I was employed as a stage driver and carried a chauffeur's license. Now I am working for a private party. Is it necessary for me to also have an operator's license for this work or for driving my own car?

A—Your chauffeur's license is all that is required.

Q—Is there a special prima facie speed limit in public parks?

A—Yes; 15 miles per hour upon highways in any public park which passes through any public playground or past any building or other place of public assemblage. Local authorities in their respective jurisdictions are authorized to determine those portions of any highway subject to the provisions of the law and erect appropriate signs giving notice of the prima facie speed law.

Q—I am 17 years old and have a chance to get a job driving a school bus. An officer said I could not secure a license until I became 18 years of age. What can I do about it?

A—There is nothing that can be done about this as the law is very plain that no license can be issued for a chauffeur or school bus driver to any person under 18 years of age.
